Playing on a sponsor's exemption, Curt Byrum won his first Tour title and his ticket onto the Tour. He closed with a round of 66 in the last of 15 Q-C tournaments played directly opposite the British Open. Byrum's win came a month after his brother Tom had won the Kemper Open, making them the first brothers to win on Tour in the same year in 17 years. Byrum opened the final round a shot back of third-round leader and defending champion Blaine McCallister.
