North Dakotan Mike Morley played Oakwood in 12-under par on the weekend and birdied five holes on the back nine on Sunday to notch his only PGA Tour win. He won by two shots over Bob Murphy and Victor Regalado. Fuzzy Zoeller was a second-round co-leader, but ultimately tied for eighth. The '77 event was the highlight of the Ed McMahon party years, with Bob Hope heading a star-studded Pro-Am that also featured Mickey Rooney, George Gobel, Scatman Carothers and Bobby Riggs and drew record crowds to the course on Wednesday.
