Two years removed from a third-place finish on the PGA Tour's year-end money list, Joey Sindelar was fighting to retain his Tour card before a closing round of 66 won him a playoff with third-round co-leader and fan favorite Willie Wood.

Sindelar won the first September Q-C tourney since 1974 with a par on the first hole of sudden death when Wood's chip at 16th hole hit a sprinkler head and bounded well past the hole. Sindelar trailed Wood and co-leader Bob Tway by three shots entering the final round.
