D.A. Weibring notched the second of his three Q-C wins, carding a final-round 64 to finish on top of the most star-studded leaderboard in tournament history. Weibring came from four shots back on Sunday and passed eight players in the process. Among those were Paul Azinger, who settled for a share of second with Peter Jacobsen after his lengthy birdie bid to tie at 18 grazed the hole. First-round leader Greg Norman shared fourth with Scott Hoch and Leonard Thompson.
